

March, 1910, shot to death at state prison. Thorne paid penalty last month.

Ottawa, Ont.—Stephen Kyoshk, Indian, sentenced to death for murder, granted new trial by Department of Justice.

Washington.—Somebody hung bull moose button on Francis Taylor, former Chicago alderman and secretary to Franklin MacVeagh and riot nearly started around white house.

Taylorville, Ill.—J. H. Belknap, switchman, shot and killed by Jas. Jackson, stranger, in revolver duel.

Geneva, Ill.—Jessie Bruner, 17, 11 So. Center ave., Chicago, and Joy Hubbard, 18, Jarva, Ill., escaped from Industrial School for Girls, making rope of bedclothing and fled with two men.

Oyster Bay.—Roosevelt was up bright and early today and began dictating speeches to his secretary.

London.—England's latest and greatest dreadnought, the Marlborough, was launched at Devonport.

Havana.—General Menocal, conservative candidate for president of Cuba, fired upon by would-be assassins.

Boston, Mass.—Mrs. Lilla M. Hunt granted divorce from Rev. Ernest W. Hunt, who refused to work because he thought it beneath his dignity.

Rome.—Reported here that Katherine Elkins, daughter of late Sen. Stephan B. Elkins, Va., has been married to William Hitt.

Berlin.—2,000 women raided butcher shop, wrecked premises and stole meat in latest protest against high prices.

Portland, Conn.—Mrs. Charles T. Stout, known as Genevieve Necker, woman national golf champion, sued for divorce.

Rochester, Ind.—John Ganzel, baseball manager, may lose sight of right eye as result of hunting accident.

Omaha, Neb.—Benjamin R. Day, railway mail clerk, and F. N. Whisenand, Adams Express messenger, arrested for robbing mails.

Boston, Mass.—Former President Charles W. Eliot, of Harvard, spoke for Wilson before 3,000 people. First political speech.

Milwaukee.—LaFollette, in magazine article, compares Roosevelt to switch engine "backing round with big noise, but getting nowhere."

Mexico City.—Felix Diaz, leader of late rebellion, will probably be executed some time today.

Jackson, Mich.—Fire, reported to started by convicts in revenge for inhuman floggings recently received, destroyed warehouse in state prison. $100,000 loss.

Milan.—Count Ferdinand Pino, 45, one of the wealthiest noblemen in Italy, shot and killed himself. Ill health.

New York.—Democratic campaign managers plan big Wilson-Marshall day Nov. 2. Wonder whose day Nov. 4 will be.

Elmira, N. Y.—Fire destroyed new Hotel Valencia. One man injured. $35,000 loss.

Sorrento, Italy.—Princess Mar-